

AUTUMN ROMANCES TAKE SOCIAL CALENDAR SPOTLIGHT

MISS ADRIENNE DALE ARMSTRONG
... November Bride

Adrienne Armstrong to Plight Vows With Lloyd D. Rickard

Miss Adrienne Dale Armstrong will wed Lloyd Dewitt Rickard in a Nov. 19 ceremony to take place in the First Methodist Church in San Pedro.

Bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Carey, of 2154 W. 253rd Pl., Lomita, and the future bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Rickard of 1029 Lowen St., Wilmington.

Their engagement was announced Oct. 19, at a party honoring the birthday of the bride-elect's grandmother, Mrs. Rose Destosito. At the party held at the home of Miss Armstrong's aunt, Mrs. Harry Destosito in Wilmington, white paper hearts inscribed with the couple's names in gold, were passed around to guests.

Both the future bride and bridegroom are students at Harbor Junior College. He is studying industrial engineering and she is taking a business course. They are graduates of Banning High School, classes of '53 and '47 respectively.

Entertains

Mrs. Helen Dryer was hostess to her bridge club at her Rolling Hills home at 13 Wideloop last Thursday evening.

A dessert course preceded the bridge games, and high score count was held by Mrs. Robert Sleeth Sr., Mrs. D. A. Murphy was second.

Mrs. Dryer's guests were Meses. Robert Lewellen, D. A. Murphy, Robert Sleeth, Dean Sears, John Oursler, and Ruby Zett.

MISS JULIA ANN MONTGOMERY
... Plans Summer Wedding

Julia Montgomery's Betrothal To Don Douglas Jr. Disclosed

The engagement of Miss Julia Anne Montgomery to Don Douglas Jr., is being made by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Montgomery, of 1830 Reynosa Dr., Torrance.

A summer wedding is being planned for next year. Bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Douglas Sr., of Downey, Calif.

The prospective bride is a 1954 graduate of Torrance High School and attended the Baptist Seminary at Covina. Her fiancé is a Downey High School graduate and is now studying mechanical engineering at Compton Junior College.

Judith Upton Weds R.L. Duim In Ceremony at First Methodist

First Methodist Church in Torrance was the scene last Saturday afternoon at 3 p.m. of the formal wedding in which Miss Judith Catherine Upton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Upton, 22901 South Meyler, exchanged wedding vows with Ronald Lee Duim, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Duim of Sequim, Washington.

The church chancel was decorated with baskets of white pom pom chrysanthemums and gladioli. Tall white tapers burned in white standards.

Miss Jean Floyd, as maid of honor, wore pale blue taffeta and net gown made with a long torso. She carried pink carnations. Misses Sharon Fischer and Alice Duim as bridesmaids were in pink tulle and each carried a cascade of pink carnations.

Robert Sofie served as best man and ushers were Robert Upton and Robert Witzdarn. The Rev. John Taylor officiated at the wedding ceremony. In charge of the guest book was Miss Jean Spangler wearing a princess gown of maroon silk.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. Pink and white carnations and candles decorated the bride's table which was centered with a pink and white wedding cake.

The young couple are establishing a Long Beach home.

The bride is a graduate of Narbonne High School and the Harbor Junior College. She is a member of Rho Delta Psi. The bridegroom was graduated from the Sequim, Washington High School.

signed and made by her mother. Her fingertip veil fell from a coronet and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and white orchids.

Miss Jean Floyd, as maid of honor, wore pale blue taffeta and net gown made with a long torso. She carried pink carnations. Misses Sharon Fischer and Alice Duim as bridesmaids were in pink tulle and each carried a cascade of pink carnations.

Robert Sofie served as best man and ushers were Robert Upton and Robert Witzdarn. The Rev. John Taylor officiated at the wedding ceremony. In charge of the guest book was Miss Jean Spangler wearing a princess gown of maroon silk.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. Pink and white carnations and candles decorated the bride's table which was centered with a pink and white wedding cake.

The young couple are establishing a Long Beach home.

The bride is a graduate of Narbonne High School and the Harbor Junior College. She is a member of Rho Delta Psi. The bridegroom was graduated from the Sequim, Washington High School.

signed and made by her mother. Her fingertip veil fell from a coronet and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and white orchids.

Miss Jean Floyd, as maid of honor, wore pale blue taffeta and net gown made with a long torso. She carried pink carnations. Misses Sharon Fischer and Alice Duim as bridesmaids were in pink tulle and each carried a cascade of pink carnations.

Robert Sofie served as best man and ushers were Robert Upton and Robert Witzdarn. The Rev. John Taylor officiated at the wedding ceremony. In charge of the guest book was Miss Jean Spangler wearing a princess gown of maroon silk.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. Pink and white carnations and candles decorated the bride's table which was centered with a pink and white wedding cake.

The young couple are establishing a Long Beach home.

The bride is a graduate of Narbonne High School and the Harbor Junior College. She is a member of Rho Delta Psi. The bridegroom was graduated from the Sequim, Washington High School.

signed and made by her mother. Her fingertip veil fell from a coronet and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and white orchids.

MRS. RONALD LEE DUIM
... Exchanges Vows

the SOCIAL World

EDNA CLOYD, Editor

OCT. 27, 1955 TORRANCE HERALD Nine

Lioness Club

A combined dinner meeting of the Lioness Club of Torrance and the Lion Tamers Club of Harbor City-Lomita, will be held Nov. 1, at the Wayfarer's Inn.

At their last meeting held at the home of Mrs. L. M. Isbell, of 1516 Beach Ave., a social was held with the game Tripoli providing diversion for the evening. Winners were Mrs. Ruel Moulton and Mrs. A. B. McTee.

MARILYN MAE WIXOM
... Sets Wedding Date

Wixom-Tomiliwitz Wedding Takes Place in Yuma Nov. 11

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon L. Wixom, 2561 Sonoma, are revealing the engagement and approaching marriage plans of their daughter, Marilyn Mae, and Joseph Raymond Tomiliwitz, 20417 New Hampshire, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tomiliwitz, of Valerme, Calif.

The wedding will take place in Yuma, Ariz., on Nov. 11. Miss Wixom was graduated from the Torrance High School in June, 1955.

The future bridegroom was

Rush Tea at Cazin Home

Alpha Omega Chapter of Theta Chi Epsilon, Business and Professional Women's Sorority held their semi-annual Rush Tea at the home of Mrs. Betty Cazin.

A beautiful sheet cake decorated with the emblem of the sorority and tiny red rose buds adorned the dining room table. Tea or coffee and cake was served to the members and their guests.

A short ceremony followed where the new girls accepted the sorority and its ideals and the sorority accepted the new girls as potential pledges.

Adjournment to the backyard for pictures to add to the Alpha Omega Scrapbook followed the meeting.

HOME FROM TRIP

Mrs. Cordie White and daughter have returned from a trip to Fort Smith, Ark., where they visited Sgt. Robert L. White, stationed at Camp Chaffee.

MISS MARTHA WILLIAMS
... Troth Disclosed

Martha Williams' Engagement To Jack Turner Is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Williams, 2432 W. 238th St., are today announcing the engagement of their daughter, Martha, to Jack Turner, son of Mrs. Lucille Manley, 2024 Andreo.

The future bride was a member of the June, 1955, graduating class at Torrance High School. She was a member of the scholarship society, G.A.A., and the Y-Teens.

Mr. Turner is a corporal in the United States Marines, stationed at El Toro Marine Base. He recently returned from two years of duty in Honolulu. He entered the Marine Corps during his senior year, 1953, at Torrance High School.

No date for the wedding has been announced.

H. F. Heinleins Party Hosts

A gala evening was enjoyed by a group of friends last Saturday evening when Mr. A. Eisenbrandt, Dudley Manley, W. C. Boswell Jr., Richard Lusk, Jerry Clark, William Loy, Robert Froom; Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Bauman, Miss Nora Lee Benedict, and Jack Hudson.

Enjoying the affair were Messrs. and Meses. Marion Humphreys, Leroy Pulliam, J. A. Eisenbrandt, Dudley Manley, W. C. Boswell Jr., Richard Lusk, Jerry Clark, William Loy, Robert Froom; Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Bauman, Miss Nora Lee Benedict, and Jack Hudson.

Autumn Accents Nuptials of Patricia Mabley-J. E. Martin

A touch of autumn in the bridal attendant's bouquets added to the beauty of the formal wedding ceremony last Saturday morning, at Nativity Catholic Church, at 11 o'clock, when Miss Patricia Anne Mabley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Felix, 22311 Eastwood Ct., became the bride of James Edward Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Martin, of Gardena.

Mrs. June Brown, wearing green taffeta and carrying bronze chrysanthemums and autumn leaves, served as the matron of honor. She was preceded down the aisle by Misses Donna Schmidt, Margo Shaffer, Marie Dunphy, and Georgia Atherton, bridesmaids. Miss Schmidt wore lavender taffeta, Miss Shaffer blue taffeta, Miss Dunphy yellow taffeta, and Miss Atherton in pink taffeta. Each carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums in the autumn shades.

Cynthia Phillips, wearing hazy green taffeta, was the flower girl.

Then came the lovely bride, on the arm of Mr. Felix. Her wedding gown was of white Chantilly lace and tulle over satin. It had a Queen Anne lace collar and the skirt of net over satin was bordered with Chantilly and pleated tulle. She wore a fingertip net veil and carried white chrysanthemums and stephanotis.

Gary Schuler served as best man and ushers were Craig Cooley, Jack Davis, Randy Haggie and Calvert Chambers. The Rev. P. J. McGuinness officiated at the ceremony. Mrs. Minnie McConlogue, at the organ, played wedding marches, and "On This Day" and the "Ave Maria."

A reception followed the wedding and Mrs. Joe Banks was in charge of the guest book. The couple is now on a Canadian honeymoon and will be at home in Inglewood.

MRS. JAMES EDWARD MARTIN
... Lovely Autumn Bride